Language of Instruction:

The general language of instruction is German.
 The language requirements for exchange students is level B2 according to the CEFR.

Welcome Week

The first week of October is the Welcome Week for all new students at Babelsberg, including exchange students.

Tuition fees:

The Film University does not ask for tuition fees. However, there is an administrative contribution for public transport, equipment insurance and Student Services that cannot be waived. Currently, the contribution is ca. 250€ per semester.

Arrival date:

Students are required to arrive on the first day of the lecture period at the latest. Any later arrival is not recommended and should be agreed upon with the International Office in advance.

Nomination:

Incoming exchange students need to be nominated by their home institution via email by the above mentioned dates to auslandsamt@filmuniversitaet.de

Application procedure:

Exchange students need to hand in their application for an exchange semester at Babelsberg. The application includes a work portfolio. Applications are reviewed by the professors of the respective study program students are applying for. Nomination from the partner university does not guarantee acceptance to the university! Documents needed:

- Filled in application form
- CV
- Transcript of Records

- Letter of recommendation from a professor of your home institution
- Letter of Motivation
- Proof of your German language skills
- Portfolio (to be reviewed by the respective study program advisor)
- Digital photograph (jpg)

All documents must either be in German or English! Own translations are accepted if they include a confirmation of the home university.

Application deadlines: May 15 for winter term/Nov 15 for summer term

Study programs

A list of study programs can be found here: <https://www.filmuniversitaet.de/studium/studienangebot/>

Health Insurance:

In Germany all students are subject to compulsory health insurance, regardless of whether they are degree seeking students or exchange students. A proof of adequate health insurance cover is essential and required for enrollment at university as well as for getting a residence permit.

Students from European countries with a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) do not require additional health insurance.

Students from countries that do not have any social security agreement with Germany need to be insured via a health insurance provider. Find more information on health insurance here.
